SRP mentioned in this column

I'm holding a town meeting in Carbondale on Monday, October 8, from 7 - 8 p.m. at the Carbondale Area Junior-Senior High School on Route 6 - Brooklyn Street in Carbondale.

Your questions and ideas at these meetings are very helpful to me in my efforts to do the best job I can as your U.S. Senator. You and all members of your family are welcome and I hope you will be able to attend.

Sincerely,

John Heinz
United States Senate

P.S. If you would like information on my bill, S. 2752, the Medicare Incentives Reform Act (MIRA) to better protect senior citizens, sharply reduce escalating medical costs, and help preserve the Medicare Trust Fund, please write for details, especially if you cannot attend the town meeting.

John's grandmother just called (about 7 P.M.) and asked if I knew anything about John's plans on moving out of 46 Canaan Street. I replied that I knew he was having difficulties with his parents and then stated that he had asked me if he could move in here and I said that he could if he wanted to.

Bernie: "Well, how's he going to get to work? You are not going to drive him, are you?" SLP: "NO." Bernie then went on to enumerate how she & Jack & Connie have been mis-treated by JOB. Bernie: "He's only been to my place once since he's been back from the service." The whole Boberniak family is running scared -- they know that they can't tie John to the front porch. They want him to stay (so that he can continue to be a household servant) and yet they are doing everything in their power to drive him out. They have created an environment in which JOB can not breathe, much as HLRP & WSP have created a world in which there is not ample room for SLP to live in. WSP/HLRP & Jack/Connie are always right & their children are always wrong, or so they would have us believe. Bernie mentioned that John had told his parents that he was moving out next Friday -- a week from today. She reported that Jack had said: "Once you move out, that's it. You're not coming back."

If John does move in here this week, we shall truly have a grand time proving to the world that there are other ways of going about one's life than the conventional bourgeois route that they have chosen. But that we have decided / not that I have decided to live and do "just to show them" -- Certainly not. Last night when I was at the BBC administrative Board meeting, JOB tried twice to visit me here. As I was driving out of town following the meeting, I saw him in front of Turkey Hill. He came to the car window, & made his report. I reported that I was half-pickled from alcohol, having dined with Jean & then having had a drink at the Yepponi after the Baptist Church meeting. John then said one of those beautiful, unforgettable lines that
